Dated Champion Reefs, 8th May 1905.

From

K. P. Puttanna Chetty Esquire,

Deputy Commissioner,

Kolar District.

To

L. Anantasamy Rao Esquire, B.A.,

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

Muzrai Department.

Sir,

With reference to your official Memo No. 2288 of the 1st December 1904 and subsequent reminder No. 3300 of the 15th March 1905 calling for a report in re the removal of Paricharak Ramiah of the Government Chatram at Kolar, I have the honor to state as follows:-

2. During the height of plague at Kolar in 1902, Ramiah would appear to have absented himself for some days and this fact was brought to the notice of the Divisional Assistant Commissioner by one Seetharamiah, who applied for the post. The Divisional Assistant Commissioner forwarded his application to the Amildar for disposal. Thereupon the Amildar reported that Ramiah was absent from duty and moreover he was old and that the applicant Seetharamiah may be appointed in his place. His nomination was confirmed by the Assistant Commissioner. It is against this order that Ramiah now appeals.

3. The papers on the subject were sent for and perused They showed that the whole of the correspondence was carried ~~on~~ on without any opportunity being given to Ramiah to explain his conduct and that he was not even asked if he was willing to serve any longer or would retire. In fact, no statement had been taken from him before he was summarily replaced by Seetharamiah.

4. Ramiah has served in the Chatram from 1857 and his service up to October 1902 is over 45 years. As it appeared that an old servant of such long standing deserved [illegible] consideration, I thought it proper to restore him [illegible] and I have accordingly issued orders to restore him to the post and to give him a further trial.

5. The question of giving him pension or [illegible] on from what funds the charge should be met &c. will be decided later on and a report submitted. The Petition herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

[illegible]

Secretary to Government,

Color Matters.
